Name:_____Date:_____Class:_____

Practice Diagramming Tricky Adverbs

A. Circle the simple subject.
B. Underline the verb phrase.
C. Double underline the main verb.
D. Draw a squiggly line under the adjectives.
E. Draw a dotted line under the adverbs.
F. Draw a line linking the adverbs to the words (verbs, adjectives, adverbs) that they modify.
G. Diagram the sentences.

1. The red cup spilled somewhere.

2. The good violin player performed very well.

3. The classroom tables are sloppily arranged.

4. The quite sad student acted so badly.

5. A somewhat tired Mr. Kyle had been energetically teaching.

6. The light purple pen did not leak everywhere.

7. The non-aggressive Louisiana black bear almost never attacks.