Name:_____Diagramming Prepositional Phrases

The following sentences have more than one prepositional phrase. These prepositional phrases contain both ADJECTIVAL and ADVERBIAL prepositional phrases. Be careful in distinguishing the part of speech that the prepositional phrases modify. Good luck!

A. Circle the subject.
B. Underline the verb phrase(s).
C. Double underline the main verb(s).
D. Place a squiggly line under the adjectives.
E. Dotted line under the adverbs with an arrow to the verb, adjective, or adverb that it modifies.
F. Box the prepositional phrase. Write P and OP over the preposition and object, respectively.
G. Draw an arrow to the word that the prepositional phrase modifies.
H. Diagram the sentences.

1. The hot, green tea in my favorite red mug had spilled onto my gray sweater.

2. The enduring marathon runner on the other team and quick sprinter on my team will be winning during their races.

3. The hot, frying grease from the pan spilled and splattered onto my new sweatshirt.
