

Name: _____ Read up to Chapter : _____

Literature Circle Book: _____

Journal #3: Asking Analytical Questions

Due: Friday, October 20 (printed before class)

1. Use the chart that was provided in class as your rubric to type three analytical questions.
2. Pick the question that you think is the most thoughtful and complex of the three and put an asterisk by it.*
3. Answer the chosen question in a thoughtful paragraph.
4. Your paragraph should be typed, double-spaced, 12-point Times New Roman or Arial font.
5. In your questions and paragraph please DO USE:
  - a. Third person (one, them, he, she, it, they)
  - b. Specific details from the book
  - c. Page numbers
  - d. Sophisticated vocabulary
6. In your questions and paragraph please DO NOT USE:
  - a. First person (I, my, me, mine), or second person (you, your)
  - b. Vague references without specific details
  - c. Contractions (don't, can't, won't, who's, they're, etc.)
  - d. Simple or colloquial vocabulary (good, bad, thing, stuff, okay)
  - e. DEADWOOD: unnecessary words